How to Complete Online Registration Through EqEntries

WARNING: Do not wait until the last day to set up this account! You won't receive your authorization in time to complete your entry before the deadline.

- If you don't already have an EqEntries account, visit www.eqentries.com and click the JOIN NOW tab. (There is no fee to 'join'.)
- After you have created an account, Click the SHOW CALENDAR tab then select the desired event name.
- Each show and each horse/rider combination requires a separate entry which include separate fees.
- A horse may not compete against itself, even with a different rider. This means a horse may not be entered in the same class twice at the same show.
- USEF rules will determine how many tests and how many levels you may enter with one horse.
